THURSDAY EVENING, DEC 23.

"Somebody's Mother."

The woman was old, and ragged and gray, And cent with the chill of a Winter's day; The streets were white with a recent snow And the woman's feet with age were slow. At the crowded crossing she waited long.

Jostlee along by the careless throng Of human beings who passed her by, Unheeding tas glance of her anxious eye. Down the street with laughter and shout, Glad in the freedom of 'school let out,'
Come happy boys, like a flock of sheep,
Hailing the snow piled white and deep, Past the woman, so old and gray, Hastened the children on their way.

None offered a helping hand to her, So week and timid, afraid to stir, Lest the carriage wheels or the horses' feet Should trample her down in the slippery street

At, last, came out of the merry troop
The gayest boy of all the group;
He paused beside her, and whispered low,
"I'll help you across if you wish to go?" Her aged hand on his strong young arm

She pisc d, and so, without hurt or harm, He guided the treabling feet along, Proud that his own were firm and strong; Then back again to his friends he went, His young heart happy and well content. "che's 'Somebody's Mether, boys, you know,

For all she's aged, and poor and slow; And some one some time may lend a hand To help MY mother—you understand?— If ever sue's poor, and old, and gray. And her own dear boy is far away.'

"Somebody's Mother" bowed low her head In her home that night, and the prayer she said Was:-"cod be kind to that noble boy, Who is Schanor's ton, and pride and joy. Fairt was the voice and worn and weak, But Heaven lists when its chosen speak; Angels caught the faltering word, And "Somebody's Mother's prayer was heard.

On Monday right the plumination of Broadway. New York, by the Bush electic light was quite successful. The clowds that witnessid the it umination were delighted on finding that they could read the smallest print with the aid of the new light.

Macon, Ga. March 31 1879. From having been intimate with the proprietors of "Swift's Syphilitic Specific," I have known much of its matufacture and uss. There are men in this community who were victims in early life to Syphilis, and who have taken the S. S. S. medicine, and are now, to all appearances and in their own belief, as free from taint ances and in their own belief, as free from taint of disease as the first man, freeh from the hands of his Maker. Delicacy forbids their public recommendations, but I am allowed to refer the skeptic privately to those who will endorse everything that can be said in its favor. Being professionally much opposed to recommending secret remedies, it is with healtation I stroch my name to this article; but I know whereof I speak when I say our science has not made public. when I say our science has not made public a combination equal to 'Swift's Syphilitic Specific' for the purpose indicated T.
